

Practical English for football players

English for Football Talent

PLAY WITH THE CONFIDENCE TO COMMUNICATE ON AND OFF THE PITCH.

THE CONTEXT

An English program designed for developing and professional football players who need to perform with confidence at trials, on tour, in training and in everyday life at clubs abroad.

The English you need in the dressing room, on the road and on the pitch. Straight to the point.

Key skills

- Introductions and basic interviews: greeting people, introducing yourself, filling in forms and talking about your career.
- Club life and training routines: following instructions in training and describing habits and daily activities.
- International travel and logistics: getting around airports, hotels and transfers on your own.
- Nutrition and sports health: talking about diet, describing aches or injuries and communicating with the medical staff.
- Professional dealings with agents and clubs: handling interviews, phone calls and meetings.
- Football debates and networking: giving opinions, arguing a point and socialising in sporting and cultural settings.

Who it's for

- Kids from age 7
- Youth players from age 14
- Adults, developing and professional

Content and activities adapted to each age group: younger players learn through play; youth and adult players get ready for trials, tours and professional life.

Levels and content

Level A1

Kickoff English

Everyday, functional communication for players starting out at trials, on tour and in life at a club abroad.

Level A2

Game On English

Greater independence: travel, health, team social life and first professional contacts with agents and clubs.

Level B1

Speaking Like a Pro

More complex discourse: giving opinions, debating, narrating and speculating in football and professional contexts.

Level B2

Playing Beyond Borders

Players stop “surviving” in English and start leading conversations, negotiating and building an international career.

Why e-duTraining

Founded in 2010 and led by Verónica de la Encina, MA—Master's in English Language Teaching (Universidad de Jaén, Spain), former Head of Instituto Superior San Bartolomé and a board member of the Rosario English Teachers' Association (APRIR) for over a decade—, e-duTraining combines 30 years of teaching experience with 16 years of leadership in corporate e-learning.

We don't sell language lessons. We design communication programs that translate into measurable performance for players, teams and clubs with international ambitions.

FIRST STEP

Book a free Global Communication Diagnostic. In under 30 minutes we assess the player's starting level of English—or your child's—and send you a report with clear next steps.
